

Josephine P. Banyham

Age: 35

Born In: Los Angeles, CA

Profession: Assistant professor at a smaller four year college located in the southern United States in the IT department. Specialized in networking and security.

Physical: About 5'6", sandy blonde shoulder length hair, green eyes. Average weight.

Family: Mother, Father, younger sister, older brother. Both parents had siblings. At the time of The Fall, mother, father and sister were in London, older brother in New York City. Not heard from them since.

Background:

Father landed a job in London and moved the family there when she was 6 months old. Grew up in London, went through school, then came over to the States for grad school. Kicked around the States, employed by a couple of different computer companies for a few years and then landed the job at the college three years before The Fall.